

Timed Program

Day ONE: Monday 5 th Dec	MORNING SESSIONS
07:00 – 08:40	REGISTRATION, EXHIBITION, NETWORKING + BREAKFAST SERVED
08:40 -09:00	Chairman's Address: Moving Toward Resiliency and Sustained Security Michael Wolfe , Principal, North River Consulting Group
09:00 – 09:30	Presentation: C-TPAT, FAST, CSI and other key Government regulations - How can complying with regulations mean leaner, more visible, more efficient and more profitable operations? Doug Doan , Business Liaison for Border and Transportation Security, DHS
09:30 – 10:00	Presentation: Hear how the US CBP's cargo security strategy is impacting global security efforts - what does this mean for you? Kathleen Conway , Director - Interdiction & Security Division, US CBP
10:00 – 10:20	Presentation: Area Maritime Security and the International Ship and Port Facility Security Code - What do these minimum security requirements mean for you and how can you anticipate future directives? Joseph LoSciuto , Commander - International Assessment Team, US Coast Guard
10:20 – 11:00	Panel Discussion: How can you get the best ROI from security - Increase efficiency and visibility through the supply chain, lower insurance costs, faster border crossings and much more! Randy Mullett , Vice President – Government Relations, CNF Raymond McGuire , former VP – International Services, Kellwood & Saks Fifth Ave. Jeff White , Director - Asset Protection, Kmart John Costello , Director – Risk / Loss Prevention and Quality, SEKO Worldwide Sandra Scott , Director – International Relations, Yellow Roadway Barry Brandman , President, Danbee Investigations (moderator)
11:00 – 11:30	COFFEE BREAK + EXHIBITION
11:30 – 12:00	Presentation: Top tips for effectively implementing C-TPAT requirements - Boeing's approach to applying security standards to global facilities+partners Ken Konigsmark , C-TPAT Program Manager, Boeing
12:00 – 12:45	Case Study: Analyzing your supply chain risk - Understanding what your company + business partners need to invest in + how to identify weaknesses Ken Konigsmark , C-TPAT Program Manager, Boeing Sean Dettloff , Manager - Partner & Asset Protection, Starbucks Brian Hyland , Senior Corporate Security Manager, SanDisk Corp. Lois O'Brien , Manager - Security Programs, SGS Trade Assurance Services Dan Negron , Vice President, TT Club Chris Hatzi , Senior Director, Crisis Simulations International Irvin Varkonyi , President, SCOPE (moderator)
12:45 – 2:00	LUNCH, NETWORKING + EXHIBITION

Day ONE: Monday 5th Dec	AFTERNOON SESSIONS
2:00 – 2:30	Presentation: Move “security” up the corporate ladder: Get cargo security on the board's agenda - Practical ROI tips for a business case to convince management! Ronald Miller, GXB – Customs & C-TPAT, Procter & Gamble Larry Arszman, Senior Manager – Global Security Operations, Procter & Gamble
2:30 – 3:00	Case Study: Hear how the United States Postal Service works with transportation service providers to increase safety and security - Learn from their experiences! Frank Scheer, Purchasing & Supply Management Specialist, U.S. Postal Service
3:00 – 3:30	COFFEE BREAK + EXHIBITION
3:30 – 4:30	Interactive Roundtable Discussions - First Hour Delegates will split into small working groups with a leader on every table. Each group discuss 2 key issues: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) How to make the business case for security to executives and keep it a priority in the boardroom 2) Examples of the real ROI the industry are currently seeing as a result of regulation compliance and security programs: where will companies see benefits and savings in the next 6-12 months? Roundtable Leaders: Frank Scheer, Purchasing & Supply Management Specialist, U.S. Postal Service Brian Paradise, Director – Risk Management, Sea Star Lines Russell Adise, Int'l Trade Specialist – Int'l Trade Admin, U.S. Dept of Commerce Juha Hintsa, Researcher, Cross-border Research Foundation Others to be confirmed nearer the event
4:30 – 5:30	Interactive Roundtable Discussions - First Hour Delegates return to the main room and the spokes-person from each table joins the moderator on stage to give feedback on their group discussion – to give the full audience varied perspectives from throughout the room! On-Stage Discussion Moderator: Michael Wolfe, Principal, North River Consulting Group
5:30 – 7:00	NETWORKING PARTY + EXHIBITION
7:00	DAY ONE CONFERENCE ENDS

Day TWO: Tuesday 6 th Dec	MORNING SESSIONS
7:30 – 08:40	REGISTRATION, EXHIBITION, NETWORKING + BREAKFAST SERVED
09:00 – 09:20	Presentation: New ISO initiatives for Security Management Systems standards for the Supply Chain – Find out the background on ISO standards, the benefits of industry standards and what the future holds! Nancy Williams, Vice President, Cotecna
09:20 – 10:10	Panel Discussion: Assess the benefits of industry self-regulation and setting international standards for security - what can you expect for the future? Nancy Williams, Vice President, Cotecna Brandon Fried, Executive Director, Airforwarders Association Renee Stein, Director - Global Trade Compliance & Policy, Microsoft Mike Dailey, Corporate Manager of Security, Exel Giles Noakes, Director, Jigsaw Container Logistics Security (moderator)
10:10 – 10:45	Panel Discussion: Hear how the USA-Canada / USA-Mexico trade lanes can be secured without delaying shipment of goods? Jim Phillips, Customs Manager, General Motors Donald Gore, Security Advisor Global Security, General Motors Stephen Evans, VP - Loss Control & Regulatory Compliance, H&R Transport Kathy Ouellette, Director - Project Development, Border Gateways (moderator)
10:45 – 11:15	COFFEE BREAK + EXHIBITION
11:15 – 11:40	Presentation: Ensure that your global facilities, partners and staff meet your corporate security standards – understand the local reality and adapt minimum security requirements to overseas capabilities Jeff White, Director - Asset Protection, Kmart
11:40 – 12:30	Panel Discussion: As emerging markets create new security concerns, what are the risks and how can you anticipate the best strategies for your international supply chain security program? Jeff White, Director - Asset Protection, Kmart Juha Hintsa, Researcher, Cross-border Research Foundation Rob Quartel, CEO/Chairman, FreightDesk Technologies (moderator)
12:30 – 12:45	Presentation: Introduction to and overview of the DHS' SAFETY Act David McWhorter, Institute-Defense Analyses, Office-SAFETY Act Implementation
12:45 – 1:15	Panel Discussion: Risk prevention technologies and solutions – using information technology to enhance security and greater cargo visibility Richard Altomare, Chairman + CEO, Universal Express David McWhorter, Institute-Defense Analyses, Office-SAFETY Act Implementation Fred Tubb, President & CEO, iControl Michael Wolfe, Principal, North River Consulting Group
1:15 – 2:15	LUNCH, NETWORKING + EXHIBITION
2:15	DAY TWO CONFERENCE ENDS (for Silver pass-holders)

Day TWO: Tuesday 6 th Dec	AFTERNOON SESSIONS (for Gold + Platinum pass-holders)
2:15 – 3:15	Workshop One: Hedge on Security, Win on Visibility - How to profit from better supply chain management while protecting against terrorists and regulatory overreaction Michael Wolfe , Principal, North River Consulting Group
3:15 – 4:15	Workshop Two: Don't forget the people - How can you motivate you team to get behind new security initiatives and ensure that your investment will be carried through the whole company? Irvin Varkonyi , President, SCOPE Luke Ritter , CEO, Trident Global Partners
4:15	DAY TWO CONFERENCE ENDS